

Alabama House of Representatives approved by the individual chambers, the two versions of the budget were similar enough to avoid the need to convene a conference committee this year. That means that the budget became law upon being signed by Governor Ivey yesterday afternoon. Therefore, I have asked Brian Thornton to proceed with preparing a budgetary recommendation for the Board of Trustees for FY 22 that: (1) implements a cost-of-living salary adjustment for faculty and staff; (2) initiates the strategic refilling of some of the positions that were left open this year to help balance the budget; and (3) holds on level f

Fountain: The Light the Fountain tradition resumed this year with the celebration on April 28. My thanks to the staff of Student Affairs and to the LTF Committee for planning festivities balanced the need to provide students with a great-of-year event while simultaneously operating within campus health and safety guidelines.
