Alabama House of Representatives approvedby the individual chambers, the two versions of the budget were similar enough to avoide need to convene a conference committee this year. That means that the budgete-camdaw upon being signed by Governor lyesterday afternoon. Therefore, I have asked WBanthornoon to proceed with preparing a budgetary recommendation for the Baard of Trusteetor FY 22hat: (1) implements acost-of-living salary adjustmentor faculty and staft; (2) intakethe strategic relifling ofcome of thepositions that were left open this year to help balance the budget; and (3) holdstion level if

Fountain: The Light the Fountain tradition resumed this year with the celebratical on April 28. My thanks to the staff of Student Affairs and to the LTF Committee for planning festilizates balanced the need to provide students with a greatl-of-year event while simultaneously operating within campus health and safety guidelines.