

Careers in Sociology and Family Studies

Areas: Human Services (Family, Social, and Community Services)	Possible Jobs: Entry level positions: Case Manager; Child/Family Advocate; Family Resource Coordinator; Foster Care or Adoption Professional; Housing Officer; Activity/Recreation Coordinator; Volunteer Coordinator; Youth Services Worker; Crisis/Hotline Worker; Clergy, Pastoral Care Require a Master's degree: Program Administrator/Director; Development Officer; Grant Writer; Program Evaluator and Researcher	Possible Employers: Government, non-profit and for-profit agencies designed to serve children, youth, families, seniors, and communities;
Communications & Business	Entry level positions: Job Placement Specialist; Human resource	of Health, Education, Human Services, Nutrition, Occupational and Human Safety, Immigration Services, etc.); Nonprofit child/family research/advocacy organizations; Policy "think tanks"; Non governmental organizations (NGOs); Criminal justice settings; Juvenile service settings; Domestic violence shelters; Victim advocacy groups; Human rights organizations; Child and adult protective services; Legislative advocacy groups