FIRST-YEAR EXPERIENCE SEMINAR.

The primary objective of this course is to assist students in acquiring and applying strategies for academic success in their first year at UNA. The course will help students identify appropriate academic and university resource services on campus and become academically and socially integrated into the UNA community. This one hour credit course includes one regularly-scheduled class period per week.

_____ FYE 101 (1) First-Year Experience Seminar

WRITING EMPHASIS COURSE (taken within major field):

All students are required to pass one writing emphasis course in their major field of study. These courses, offered at the junior and senior level, are designated in the bulletin by a "W" following the course number. A student with more than one major will be required to pass a writing emphasis course in each major. EN 112 is a prerequisite to all "W" courses.

COMPUTER LITERACY:

All students are required to attain computer literacy through discipline-based instructions within their major fields or through an additional three-semester hour computer course.
